EDITION

INTRODUCTION

THE DIRECTORY

The IFCG’s Directory of Faith Communities and Traditions was first published in 1996. It has been and continues to be a resource for inter-faith initiatives, contact and dialogue. It has also been and continues to be a useful resource for the public services: for council officers, community workers and hospital chaplains. This directory is made available as a PDF on the IFCG’s website.

Inclusion within this Directory does not necessarily imply an affiliation or agreement with the aims and objectives of the IFCG. Each statement of faith or belief contained within the Directory simply identifies the entrant in their own words. It is neither the IFCG’s desire nor intention that any comparisons be made between one entry and another.

THE IFCG

The Brighton & Hove Inter-Faith Contact Group (the IFCG) came together in the 1990s as a resource for contact and dialogue, to help build and maintain good relations and greater understandings between the many different communities of tradition and faith in our area; to provide a forum for discussing matters of mutual concern; and to organise and promote inter-faith initiatives and activities. A copy of the IFCG’s constitution can be viewed on the IFCG’s website.

The Honorary President of the IFCG - the Mayor of the City of Brighton & Hove - each year opens the IFCG’s Annual General Meeting. This meeting elects the IFCG’s Chair, Secretary and Treasurer. It also confirms the IFCG’s Executive Committee, comprised of representatives from our city’s Faith Communities and Traditions. Membership of the IFCG is open to all who reside, work or worship in Brighton & Hove; agree with the aims of the IFCG; and pay an annual subscription (currently £10 per year).

The IFCG is affiliated to the Inter Faith Network for the United Kingdom and endorses its code of conduct, Building Good Relations with People of Different Faiths and Beliefs. A copy of that code can be found in the concluding pages of this directory.
THE PHOTOGRAPHS

The photographs in this directory were taken by Tony Tree for Faith 2000 -

- a photographic record for the millennium of over two thousand black & white images in a range of settings, some personal and some very public
- and an exhibition at Brighton Museum & Art Gallery

- following his twelve month project to document the richness & diversity and moments in ritual of the religious faiths and cultural traditions within Brighton & Hove.

For reasons of space, to keep this directory to a reasonable number of printable pages, not every faith or community is represented by a photograph in this directory.

More of these photographs (and further information regarding the photographs featured in this directory) can be found at www.tonytree.net/faith-2000.html

PLEASE NOTE
The photos in this directory are not necessarily related to the faith communities or traditions that might be listed on the same page.
HOW THE INFORMATION IN THIS DIRECTORY WAS COLLECTED & ARRANGED

Each faith community or tradition in this directory was listed in English-alphabetical order according to its own given title.

Information was provided by each faith, community or tradition in response to a request from this directory’s Editorial Group. Where information was not provided then an entry was compiled using information generally available in public places.

When it was known that there were people of a faith or tradition in Brighton & Hove but there was no further information available regarding local contact points or meeting places, then a regional or international information resource was listed.

A faith community or tradition could be listed individually or within its own group of related communities or traditions. If a community or tradition had several meeting places (for example a number of parish churches) then only its principal meeting places were listed.

Each entry might contain some if not all of the following details.

- The name of the faith/community/tradition and contact details
- A brief description of the faith/community/tradition
- Principal local meeting place(s)
- Times of meetings/services
- Information regarding access to the public, dress codes, wheelchair access, etc
- The availability of further information (from offices, websites, libraries, etc)

Classes and cafes may be mentioned, but we did not include secondary commercial information such as a meeting place being available for hire.

This (June 2015) edition of the directory is the last in this format.

Since the original software and document template are no longer available, the IFCG Directory in this format will no longer be updated.

In future, the IFCG Directory might appear in a new, online format compiled in co-operation with a number of other organisations.

Because the original template was unavailable, although corrections to the existing text could be made, new entries could not easily be inserted. This has meant recent additions appear in the back pages of this edition (see Contents list).
EDITORIAL GROUP

Regarding this directory and its contents, the Editorial Group may be contacted at directory@interfaithcontactgroup.com

The IFCG Directory’s Editorial Group is unable to answer questions regarding the faith communities or traditions listed in this directory. Further information should be sought via the contact details listed in this directory for a particular faith community or tradition.
DIRECTORY OF FAITH COMMUNITIES AND TRADITIONS

Bahá’í Faith
The Bahá’í Centre, 19 Stanford Avenue, Brighton, BN1 6GA
01273 505895
www.brightonbahais.org.uk

The Bahá’í Faith is founded on the teachings of Bahá’u’lláh. He was born in 1817 to a prominent family in Iran. He was banished into an exile that took him to the Holy Land. It was there that he passed away in 1892. Today, the Bahá’í Faith is among the fastest-growing of the world’s religions, with more than five million followers who reside in virtually every nation on earth.

Baha’is believe that there is one God; that women and men are equal; that all humanity is one family; and that there is a fundamental unity underlying religion. Bahá’ís recognize that the coming of Bahá’u’lláh has opened the age for the establishment of world peace, when, as anticipated in the sacred scriptures of the past, all humanity will achieve its spiritual and social maturity, and live as one united family in a just, global society.

Weekly open discussions: Every Sunday, 5.30 - 6.30pm at the Bahá’í Centre.

More info can be found at the National UK Bahá’í website, www.bahai.org.uk

Books and documents, etc. are available from the Bahá’í Centre, and in Brighton & Hove Libraries.

The Brahma Kumaris World Spiritual University (UK) teaches Raja Yoga as a way of experiencing peace of mind and a positive approach to life.

The university provides opportunities for people from all religious and cultural backgrounds to explore their own spirituality and learn skills of reflection and meditation derived from Raja Yoga, which will help develop inner calm, clear thinking and personal well-being.

Across the UK we work with national and local organisations and community groups in such areas such as inter-religious dialogue, youth programmes, prison outreach, social work and women’s and men’s groups. BKWSU (UK) was established as a UK charity in 1975 and charges no fees for any of its activities, being funded by voluntary contributions.

The university is part of a worldwide network of over 9,000 centres in more than 100 countries, the first of which was founded in India in the 1930’s.

The Society meets on the first Wednesday of every month (except August) at 7:30pm (8:00pm start) at The Lord Nelson Inn, Trafalgar Street, Brighton BN1 4WQ

The Lord Nelson Inn is a short walk from Brighton Railway station and seven bus stops (6, 7, 27, 27A, 37, 50A, 56). It is also a short distance from London Road bus stops (alight at St. Peter's Church). There are good parking facilities nearby.

Meetings usually take the form of a talk followed by a period of informal discussion. Everyone is welcome, from existing humanists to people who haven't got a clue what humanism is about and just happen to be interested in the topic under discussion. You don’t have to be a member to attend, and admission is free.

Christian Science was founded by Mary Baker Eddy to reinstate primitive Christianity and its lost element of healing. Its teachings are based solely on the Bible, both the old and new testaments.

Church services are at 11.00 am on Sundays and at 7.30 pm on Wednesdays. All are welcome. Access to the church is on ground level.

The Christian Science textbook is Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy. Other books by Mrs Eddy, several books on Christian Science and biographies of Mrs Eddy can be bought, or borrowed or read at the Reading Room or obtained from most public libraries. The Christian Science Monitor, Journal, Sentinel, and Quarterly can also be obtained from the Reading Room or on subscription.

The Church of England is one of the Christian churches in England and traces its origins back to a mission sent by Pope Gregory the Great in the sixth century CE. Christians had been here long before that, perhaps even in the years immediately following the time of Jesus himself. Christians worship on Sunday, the first day of the week, in commemoration of the resurrection of Jesus.

The Church of England is part of the worldwide Anglican Communion, a fellowship of dioceses (local churches) organised in about 38 autonomous "provinces" with approximately 70 million members.

Brighton and Hove is part of the Diocese of Chichester which covers the whole of Sussex, East and West. In Brighton and Hove there are over 50 Anglican church buildings, with an average total Sunday attendance of about 5,000 served by approximately 50 clergy (priests and deacons.) In the city there are 8 Church of England schools whose combined membership is about 1800.

Quakers believe there is that of God in everyone; that all people may have direct experience of this, both in worship and in their daily lives; and that religion is about how we live in this world in the here and now. Our worship is mostly in silence.
We meet together in the Meeting House every Sunday: from 9.30am until 10.15am; from 10.30 until 11.30 am (which is our main Meeting for Worship. There is also a Children’s Meeting at this time) and from 5pm until 5.45pm. We also meet in the Quiet Room on Wednesdays from 12.30pm until 1pm. Everyone is welcome to attend these meetings.
There are books and pamphlets about our faith and practice in the library room in our Meeting House.

www.dabnet.org

Catholics believe in one God who created all that is, and who for love of the world redeemed us through the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ, and who sustains us by the Holy Spirit He is present everywhere, and especially in His Word and sacraments in the Church. We share the faith of the Apostles which is passed down to us in scripture and living tradition. We believe that all people are made in God’s image and enjoy equal human dignity, and the basic rule of life is to love and serve God and each other.

CODE OF CONDUCT

The IFCG is affiliated to The Inter Faith Network for the UK and endorses its code of conduct - Building Good Relations with People of Different Faiths and Beliefs: Short guidelines for inter religious encounter and dialogue.

BUILDING GOOD RELATIONS WITH PEOPLE OF DIFFERENT FAITHS AND BELIEFS

In Britain today, people of many different faiths and beliefs live side by side. The opportunity lies before us to work together to build a society rooted in the values we treasure. But this society can only be built on a sure foundation of mutual respect, openness and trust. This means finding ways to live our lives of faith with integrity, and allowing others to do so too. Our different religious traditions offer us many resources for this and teach us the importance of good relationships characterised by honesty, compassion and generosity of spirit. The Inter Faith Network offers the following code of conduct for encouraging and strengthening these relationships.

As members of the human family, we should show each other respect and courtesy. In our dealings with people of other faiths and beliefs this means exercising good will and:

- Respecting other people's freedom within the law to express their beliefs and convictions
- Learning to understand what others actually believe and value, and letting them express this in their own terms
- Respecting the convictions of others about food, dress and social etiquette and not behaving in ways which cause needless offence
- Recognising that all of us at times fall short of the ideals of our own traditions and never comparing our own ideals with other people's practices
- Working to prevent disagreement from leading to conflict
- Always seeking to avoid violence in our relationships.

When we talk about matters of faith with one another, we need to do so with sensitivity, honesty and straightforwardness. This means:

- Recognising that listening as well as speaking is necessary for a genuine conversation
- Being honest about our beliefs and religious allegiances
- Not misrepresenting or disparaging other people's beliefs and practices
- Correcting misunderstandings or misrepresentations not only of our own but also of other faiths whenever we come across them
- Being straightforward about our intentions
- Accepting that in formal inter faith meetings there is a particular responsibility to ensure that the religious commitment of all those who are present will be respected.
All of us want others to understand and respect our views. Some people will also want to persuade others to join their faith. In a multi faith society where this is permitted, the attempt should always be characterised by self-restraint and a concern for the other's freedom and dignity. This means:

- Respecting another person's expressed wish to be left alone
- Avoiding imposing ourselves and our views on individuals or communities who are in vulnerable situations in ways which exploit these
- Being sensitive and courteous
- Avoiding violent action or language, threats, manipulation, improper inducements, or the misuse of any kind of power
- Respecting the right of others to disagree with us.

Living and working together is not always easy. Religion harnesses deep emotions which can sometimes take destructive forms. Where this happens, we must draw on our faith to bring about reconciliation and understanding. The truest fruits of religion are healing and positive. We have a great deal to learn from one another which can enrich us without undermining our own identities. Together, listening and responding with openness and respect, we can move forward to work in ways that acknowledge genuine differences but build on shared hopes and values.

The above code can be requested or downloaded from The Inter Faith Network for the UK, whose address can be found in the Resources for Inter-Religious Contact & Inter-Faith Dialogue (National & International) section in this directory.
RECENT ADDITIONS & UPDATES TO THIS DIRECTORY

Since the original software and document template are no longer available, the IFCG Directory in this format is no longer updated. Although corrections to the existing text can be made, new entries cannot easily be inserted. This has meant recent additions appear below rather than in the main body.

In future, the IFCG Directory might appear in a new, online format compiled in co-operation with a number of other organisations.

Community of Interbeing
Pebbles Sangha
0333 044 2435 www.pebblessangha.com
We are part of the UK Community of Interbeing - www.coiuk.org
Pebbles Sangha meets at Patcham Community Centre, Ladies Mile Road, Patcham, on two Saturday mornings a month (usually the first and third) from 9.45am till 12.15pm, with the option to stay for a shared lunch. The meeting is usually held in room 3, on the first floor. A lift is available and the venue is accessible for wheelchair users.
Our practice is based on the teachings of Thich Nhat Hanh, a Vietnamese Zen Master. Thich Nhat Hanh’s teaching is based on conscious breathing and being fully aware of the present moment - the only moment in which we really live and in which joy is possible. This allows us to discover that “There is no way to happiness - happiness is the way”. Practice includes guided, walking and sitting meditation, sharing readings, listening to dharma talks and sharing from the heart and deep listening.
Beginners are very welcome and further information can be found on our website.

The teaching of the White Eagle Lodge is based on an ancient wisdom, embracing the inner truth at the heart of many spiritual traditions and underpinning much of the world’s religious and spiritual teaching. This teaching helps us to understand the purpose of our earthly journey, supporting us in living our lives in harmony with divine law.

   Every man, woman and child has within their being a 'light' to guide them. White Eagle calls this the Christ spirit, the spirit of universal love. The word ‘Christ’ is meant universally, and is not linked with any particular religion.

   White Eagle's teaching helps us develop our true nature, so that our inner, spiritual light can radiate throughout our whole being, and out into the world to bless, heal and comfort, bringing peace and harmony for all life. The Lodge offers the opportunity to follow a universal spiritual path of brotherhood to all life, in a variety of ways, such as in healing and meditation, attending retreats, workshops and courses, and in studying and applying the spiritual science of astrology, all as part of our unfolding Wisdom school.

   You are warmly welcomed to come along to any of our regional activities, listed above, to discover the beauty and simplicity of a gentle way of service.

The Society of Saint Pius X

Church of the Holy Family

Rigpa South Downs

112 Malling Street, Lewes BN7 2RG
07886 249227 south.downs@rigpa.org.uk

Rigpa South Downs is part of a wider organisation that Sogyal Rinpoche founded in 1979. Inspired by the meaning of the word rigpa - the innermost, essential nature of mind – Sogyal Rinpoche gave this as the name for his work and to the vehicle he was developing to serve the Buddha’s teaching in the West. Today, Rigpa has more than 130 centres in 30 countries around the world.

Rigpa aims to present the Buddhist tradition of Tibet in a way that is both completely authentic and as relevant as possible to the lives and needs of modern men and women. Open to all schools and traditions of Buddhist wisdom, and with the guidance and gracious patronage of His Holiness the Dalai Lama, Rigpa offers those following the Buddhist teachings a complete path of study and practice, along with the environment they need to experience the teachings fully.
