Interfaith Contact Group

NewsUpdate

Week Commencing June 24th, 2014

Music for the Soul

An Interfaith Contact Group event will be held in the Upper Hall of Hove Methodist Church.

Tuesday 8 July 7.30 – 9.30pm, is the date, and all readers of this newsletter are invited. Should you attend, you will be asked to bring along a short piece of music or singing (3 or 4 mins) that we can all listen to on a CD player (unless people wish to perform/sing it themselves) and hear why it has spiritual significance for the person who is bringing it to our attention.

We will also spend some time composing some words that have meaning for people from any faith background, with a view to setting the words to music for singing on a future IFCG occasion.

For more information, please call: 07956 314380

The Inter-faith Contact Group of Brighton and Hove is continuing its programme of serving the local faith communities with the launch of an email bulletin sheet featuring details of the latest interfaith events and activities across the City. If you would like to contribute to this please email the secretary of the IFCG. Her email is anthea@antheab.com.
